

Imagine that you are staying at your aunt's farm. When you go in the barn you hear a very strange noise in the corner. You go investigate. Write a story about what you find and what happens next.

Imagine that you're playing hide and seek. You run to the attic and hide somewhere. Tell where you hid and write a story about an amazing discovery you made while hiding there. Be sure to tell what happens next.

You are in the grocery store with your mother. When you open the freezer case to get some ice-cream you are shocked to find something alive in there! Tell what you find and write about what happens next.